Forthcoming Event

Dear Partners, Friends and Sympathizers,

We hope you had a great summer and please see below for the newest updates.

Building Bridges

The Observatoire de la Finance is a Partner of Building Bridges, taking place in Geneva from 3 to 6 October 2022.

For this occasion, we organize a session on

Sustainable Investing: Assessing Socio-economic Impacts of Exchange-traded Funds

Wednesday, October 5, 2022
Geneva
9:00 - 10:30 (CET)

Speakers:

- Adam Marszk, Associate professor, Gdansk University of Technology
- Ewa Lechman, Associate Professor, Gdańsk University of Technology, Fahrenheit Universities
- Julie Segal, Senior Manager, Climate Finance, Environmental Defence Canada

Prof. Adam Marszk and Prof. Ewa Lechman will present their forthcoming book (Academic Press) which covers various aspects of the European sustainable investing exchange-traded funds (ETFs), including the empirical study of their effects for the financial and socio-economic systems as well as their possible impact on the environment. Julie Segal will broaden the discussion, building off Adam and Ewa's work with a focus on equity/justice and policy/regulation.

Forthcoming Event

In Cooperation with the European Business Ethics Network (EBEN), the Schader Foundation organizes a research conference about strategies for business ethics, sustainable finance and whistle-blowing.

Business ethics has emerged as an academic teaching and research discipline focusing on practical relevance, that is, moral conflict management and prevention in business contexts, and education of future and present business professionals.

European Business Ethics Network Research Conference

28 - 29th September 2022
Darmstadt

Prof. Paul H. Dembinski will participate on 28th September and his talk will be "Exploring the ambiguities of sustainable finance".
